Directions to the Dallas Convention Center Halls D, E and F

Train:

The Red and Blue DART trains have a stop at the Dallas Convention Center in the vicinity of Halls D, E and F. On Saturday morning each train arrives at the Convention Center every 30 minutes. Thus, if you are at a location where you can catch either train (such as the Mockingbird Station) one of the red or blue trains will arrive every 15 minutes. Round trip fare is $6.00. Parking is free at DART stations. See below under Lot E as to where to enter the Convention Center.

Car:

There are numerous places to park in and around the Convention Center, see map. However, Lot E and J is FREE (Costs listed below for the other parking areas may or may not be the exact cost):

- Lot E and J. There is No Charge for Lot E and J. Lot E is at the intersection of Memorial Drive and Hotel Street. One route is via Memorial Drive off of Lamar St. If you are coming from the south (IH-30 towards the Convention Center) on Lamar Street, turn left onto Memorial Drive at the traffic signal. If you are coming from the north (Wood Street towards the Convention Center) turn right onto Memorial Drive at the traffic signal. Memorial Drive goes underneath the Convention Center. As you see daylight on the west side of the Convention Center, Lot E will be to the left across Hotel Street. Parking is on a first come basis. Access from the parking lot to the entrance to the Convention Center for Volunteers is through a set of doors directly across Hotel Street from Lot E.
